

“Angels for Angels” - Child Support Plan

What is ‘Angels for the Angels’ Programme?

Ek Pahel’s ‘Angels for the Angels’ programme aims to give hope to learn and grow to 150 children supported by Ek Pahel – B.R. Memorial Welfare Society. The focus of the programme is to provide education, one time meal and better health facilities to the children and a platform to hone their skills in extra-curricular activities.

How Can You Be an Angel?

Ek Pahel is merely a channel to reach out to the children belonging to the underprivileged section of the society and endeavours to make a difference in their lives. But the real help would come from people like you who have the heart and capacity to help these children. You can sway your magic wand and prove to be an angel by sponsoring a child or more children for a year.

Details of the Programme: The programme will run in two phases:

First Phase: Impart preliminary education to the children at ‘Prakashpunj’ – Ek Pahel Pathshala and provide them with a clean living environment, nutritious food, uniforms and other schooling needs, classes for teaching special skills like dance, painting, etc. This way we can ensure a better life to these children and prepare them to be at par with children going to big schools.

Second Phase: Impart higher quality education to the children by admitting them to English medium schools with special focus on their schooling needs along with their healthcare and overall development on a continuous basis.

Currently we are in the first phase of our programme wherein we spend minimum Rs. 600/Month for 10 Months per child that amounts to Rs. 6000 per year per child. The entire amount would be spent to meet the following expenses:
